Brookings-Harbor School District Athletic Department Goals

- Non-Negotiable Goals:
 - Student-Athletes will be leaders in the classroom.
 - The Athletic Department will monitor tardies and referrals for all student-athletes throughout the season.
 - Reports will be email and/or put in their mailbox.
 - I need Input on how coaches want this monitored and enforced.
 - All teams will do one community service project.
 - This project must be done during the sports season.
 - Coaches are allowed to pick what, how, when, where, and why.
 - The Athletic Department will create a short write up at the completion of the event. Be prepared to help with this process.
 - Coaches will teach the following six lessons to their student athletes. Each coach must give me a short out-line as well as a date and time for when the lesson will be discussed:
 - Lesson #1 – How to organize your time to get all the work done.
 - Lesson #2 – Importance of being a leader in the classroom and community.
 - Lesson #3 – How to eat healthy and deal with stress.
 - Lesson #4 – How to work hard and deal with failure.
 - Lesson #5 – How to be a good team mate.
 - Lesson #6 – How to be coachable.
 - Get input from coaches on lesson topics.
- Individual Coaching Goals
 - All coaches will provide two personal growth goals.
 - One in-season goal
 - One off-season goal
