Brookings-Harbor School District to host Community Night Nov. 29

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - Nov. 14, 2017

[Brookings, Ore.] — Community Night is a chance to learn more about your schools and share a meal and conversation.

Brookings-Harbor School District will host this new event from 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 29, in the Brookings-Harbor High School cafeteria, 629 Easy St.

Community Night will include a free spaghetti dinner, information fair featuring school district departments and services, and a presentation from the superintendent.

Superintendent Sean Gallagher will discuss the coordinated work at all grade levels to improve the graduation rate in our community.

He will also discuss the exciting college and career pathways being developed in partnership with Southwestern Oregon Community College to help prepare students for careers of the future in areas such as manufacturing and making, health care, business and education.

Finally, he will give updates on new and continuing programs in the district aimed at improving student safety such as bullying and harassment prevention strategies and policies that protect student privacy.

You can fill out a passport at the information tables and turn it in for a chance to win a door prize. Kids activities will be provided by Little Bruins during the event.
