School District cancels school Tuesday for inclement weather, icy conditions

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - Jan. 3, 2016

Brookings-Harbor School District 17C has canceled all classes and after-school activities for Tuesday, Jan. 3, 2017 at Kalmiopsis Elementary School, Azalea Middle School and Brookings-Harbor High School.

Superintendent Sean Gallagher made the decision early Tuesday morning citing inclement winter weather and hazardous road conditions across southern Curry County, particularly on bus routes in the hills above Brookings.

Oregon Department of Transportation's Trip Check issued a travel alert for the region Tuesday morning predicting heavy snow showers to continue in the coastal mountains then heavy snow to spread further inland this afternoon, particularly in areas above 2000 feet in eastern Curry with downed trees and power outages are likely. Roads in lower elevation areas were predicted to be slushy and slick.

Tuesday would have been the first day back to classes after Winter Break.

Updates will be distributed to radio stations KURY 95.3 FM; KCRE/KPOD 94.3 FM, 97.9 FM and 1240 AM; the Curry Coastal Pilot newspaper and the district website at www.brookings.k12.or.us.
